PHOTOART DI APREM HANNA - We approach and photograph every even t in a unique way - one that reflects the character and style of each couple and their wedding. We never overly pose but instead find unique locations and see what com es naturally with just a sprinkling of direction. Creative photography is all about loo king and looking again and seeing things differently. I's about looking beyond the o bvious and seeing possibilities. We create distinctive and beautiful images. Creative wedding photography it's about working with what you have, and seeing and making beautiful and individual photographs in any situation.
